DEPARTURE OF THE AUSTRALIA.

The departure of the S. S. Australia for San Francisco this noon was unusually gay, on account of the number of Island people being among the passengers. The steamer took a long list of passengers, as will be seen in the shipping column. She did not get away promptly at noon on account of a

Portuguese woman being stopped until she handed out some coin.

Flower decorations were, of course,

very profuse. Berger and his boys blew the steamer off, while a cloud of handkerchiefs waved on her deck.

PARADISE OF THE PACIFIC.

"Paradise of the Pacific" is the name of a monthly paper, the first number of which appeared to-day. It is not intended for home perusal, but for distribution abroad. It is an eight-page paper, with five columns on a page. Being designed for the enlightenment of people in other countries on matters relating to these islands, the paper is made up of articles calculated to effect that purpose. Its articles are partly original and partly reprint. This initial number of the "Paradise of the Pacific" is a satisfactory effort, and is well adapted for the fulfil-ment of its object. Mr. J. Williams

S. F. Graham, E. Van Dorn, A. Gartenberg, E. C. Damon, C. W. Macfarlane, W. R. Seal, J. M. Dow-sett, C. O. Berger, W. G. Brash, Max Eckart, M. H. Jones, C. T. Gulick are the jurors.

POLICE COURT.

CRIMINAL CASES.

Nine Chinamen charged with gambling were nol. pros'd.

Peter Donald and L. Deirking, smuggling opium into the kingdom last night were caught by officer Larson and fined $50 and $60 respectively, and got 1 and 2 months at hard labor, respectively.

For disturbing the quiet of the night a native man and woman were reprimanded and discharged.

J. McLean is being tried this afternoon on a charge of gross cheat.

EUROPE'S NOTABLE OLD MEN.

Beginning his eighty-third year, M. Ferdinand de Lesseps can look around and see but few men of anything like equal eminence who are as old as he. The German Emperor is ninety; Dr. Dollinger is eightyeight; Moltke and Bancroft, the historian, are each eighty-seven; Kossuth is eighty-five, and Professor Owen is eighty-three; but it is not easy to extend the list. Yet it is astonishing to note the large number of living great men who have passed the ordinary limit of human life. Of sovereigns, the Pope is seventy-seven, and King William of the Netherlands is well on his seventy-first year. Of statesmen, Mr. Gladstone is seventy-nine: Mr. Bright is seventy-six; Prince Bismarck is seventy-two; M. Jules Grevy is seventy-four; M. Leon Say and M. Leroyer are each seventyone; Lord Selborne is seventy-five and Lord Granville is seventy-two. Of Generals, McMahon is seventynine; LeBoeuf is seventy-eight; and Bazaine and Cialdini are each seventy-six. Of poets, Lord Tennyson is seventy-eight, Mr. Browning is seventy-five and Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes is seventy-eight. Of Musicians, M. Verdi is seventythree. Of engineers, Lord Armstrong is seventy-seven, and Sir John Hawkshaw is seventy-six. Of painters, Meissonier is seventy-two; and finally, of showmen, Barnum is seventy-seven. Perhaps, however, M. Chevreul, who is fairly started upon his one hundred and second year, ought not to be omitted .-London Daily News.
